Grand Loft Suites are on 2 levels and have 1 bedroom, 2 bathrooms, living/dining room (double couch), fully equipped bathroom (shower), balcony (dining area), master bedroom (level 2) with 2 twin beds/convertible. The owner's suites have a bedroom (2 twin beds/convertible), a fully equipped bathroom (bathtub, 2 sinks), half bathroom, living area (dining table, table, sofa), balcony. Junior suites have a bedroom (2 twin beds / convertible), fully equipped bathroom (bath), living area (double sofa), large balcony. The vestibule can be connected to the Studio Inside cabin or the cabin overlooking the ocean. Spa Junior Suites have a split bath (bathtub, separate shower with glass wall / allowing daylight), half bathroom (toilet, sink). All balcony lounges/suites have sliding doors with floor ceilings that open onto a private veranda. All Oceanview cabins have an image window (round window, size is 24 inches / 61 cm). The unique (new) cabin type is the Royal Caribbean cabin interior with virtual balcony (Class M, N, Q). The cabin has an ice screen with a floor ceiling (size 80 inches / 2 m). It is a 4K ultra-HD screen (without TV functions) that receives live video (in real time) from the ship's external cameras. This means that you will enjoy balcony views along the boat itinerary route without paying balcony cabin prices. Individual cabins (studios) are lounges at no extra cost. The studios are designed for solo passengers. Available for booking RCI cabin types/categories are SI-Studio Inside (with virtual balcony), SO-Studio Oceanview and SB-Studio Balcony.Ve compared to Oasis-class ships, the Odyssey has larger lounges and more connecting family cabins. The Odyssey is also the second ship in the fleet with an exclusive suite-only complex. The enclave is located forward on decks 13-15-16 and consists of gold and silver categories of suites grouped in a private complex. Passengers in gold and silver have exclusive access to a card, a private elevator, an exclusive restaurant and a bar lounge. Suites-exclusive amenities also have access to balcony (private sun terrace on deck 16) and Boutique (VIP shopping area on deck 15, also provides information and reservations for private/customized shopping trips ashore). All cabins as amenities have 2 twin beds (convertible to Royal King), plenty of closet/drawer space, private bathroom (shower, hair dryer, bath products), seating area (table, drawers, dressing table, sofa / convertible), flat TV, individual air conditioning, phone with direct choice, safe, radio, minibar, European and American / British plugs, 2x USB charging points, internet access, 24-hour room service (5-12 hours / free). Some lounges also have a sofa or top/bunk beds (Pullman beds) for a third/4 person. Twin beds of 36 x 82 inches (90 x 210 cm), all convertibles to the Royal King.In-cabin babysitter is available for an hourly fee (US$19 per child) for 4 children per lounge max. Movies, toys and games suitable for children with autism can be rented for use in the cabin. Among the new technologies implemented on Royal Caribbean's Odyssey are RFID bracelets (aka WOWbands). This is an optional option to replace traditional SeaPass cards. They allow passengers to shop on board (shopping, paying for drinks and food, playing in as well as access to they are made with silicone, offered in different colors (black, blue, white, yellow) and can be used on other Royal Caribbean ships (to be reprogrammed). They were first introduced on quantum as free equipment for all guests. Subsequently, RCI began charging for WOWBands US$5 (available for purchase at the Guest Services reception). Junior Suite and above passengers will receive their bracelets free of charge (placed in envelopes in the cabins).
